

World Peace Declaration

War and peace, was originally the history of the two main axis; nation and state are the two main promoters of war and peace. Over the past century, there has been the outbreak of countless wars, the bloody battles of the two World Wars have shown that the sword for the plow of the great truth, has also created a respectable war control of raw materials: to prevent warfare of peace structure, but the imperialism and hegemonic thinking, and develop into the nuclear power and then attempt to monopolize the nuclear weapons of the hegemony, not only to stimulate the small state to nuclear destruction and the fear of terror attack in self-defense; at the same time everywhere in the war flames continued, but also caused a wave of another wave of disaster refugees. The death of mankind's grievances, coupled with the destruction of the Earth's limited resources after the storm, caused by climate change after the ecological counterattack has been predicted natural and man-made earth has entered the human symbiotic life or death of the major key. Extremes of resistance, the ultimate civilizations, will be transformed in the spiritual civilization, has been pressing, relying on the choice of the global free people.

The ancestors of the human race in the "Garden of Eden" committed the original sin, the nations are also in the "Tower of Babel" after the collapse of the continent, in the "lost paradise" lost soul, repeatedly staged "life with life, eye for an eye, The patriotism will be the excuse of hegemonic warfare, a serious violation of universal values and indifference to human nature, "the murder of the people, Proper justice and goodness. As a part of the globalization of the free people, we are facing confrontation between China and India, the United States and the DPRK so far no solution but possible nuclear warfare, especially dangerous threat to the vulnerable small state which has been forced to possess nuclear weapon for self-defense and fearless nuclear destruction. "Militant death" no matter what the size of the state must face the common planet and the coexistence of the Earth and the human nature of the catastrophe for the overall safety and peace and stability of the earth, solemnly called for global peace-loving, cherish the freedom of the earth, humane self-help synchronized voice:

First, there is a possible war between the north and south in Korea Peninsula, even if partial war, due to the chain reaction involves land and sea warfare in relation to the United States to the possible nuclear destruction of the Sino-US fuse or detonated the outbreak of the Third World War.

Second, peace is the survival of human beings according to basic human rights, global human security, no matter what size of state and individuals in the earth at the village of the world, the right to life is universally recognized as a universal value. The world put their trust in big powers of China and the United States, the hope that the maintenance of the world peace and justice there is a lofty hope that the future cannot be apostate against heaven.

Third, men are born equal, congenital difficult to bear strong rivalry, but not violence can be tribute to all things ecology. The world should be humane care, the big powers should be fair and justice to assist small countries and their citizens, respect their human dignity and the right to life, and jointly maintain the vitality of the ecological life of the earth.

Fourth, the global freedom of the people and now faced with the difficult relationship between the two big powers at a Bi-Polar World whom difficult to reconcile, save the Earth's Paris summit the lack of the U.S. support; North Korea nuclear threat to the mankind. Entering into the ternary reconciliation and balance mechanism, it is for the rescue of mankind and the earth is facing more and more dangerous of Creatures suffering.

Fifth, we are encountering the common destiny of human society, through thick and thin in the stormy of the earth. Seeing the devastated devils, the displaced peasant refugees, has been undoubtedly nuclear tests and arms race, brutal bloody war, no control of human and no restricted nuclear poisoning against human beings and the earth, does it mean that the end of the world.

Sixth, the establishment of the Democratic Council by global Liberal Democrats to assist the major powers-led the United Nations Security Council according to Coal and Steel Community model under large data and AI control, nuclear and strategic materials. To create a Peace Charter for the permanent peace of mankind, and to co-ordinate the world.
